

STUDENT INTEGRITY CONTRACT

Each traditional student enrolled at Manhattan Christian College will be expected to live according to Christian principles at all times. Our standard of conduct at Manhattan Christian College is positive Christian living. All members of the college community will seek to live according to the principles of life revealed by and in Jesus Christ, as taught in the scriptures. We wish for such quality of living as will provide the fruit of the Spirit in our lives.

A student, by his/her voluntary membership in this Christian community, assumes responsibility to abide by all the regulations of the college, and must remember that he/she represents Christ and MCC at all times. He/She is expected to maintain a life of integrity and always reflect the character of Jesus Christ.

Listed below is an overview of the Principles of Conduct which each student is expected to live by while enrolled at MCC.* Other important student issues and information, including academic, enrollment, business and financial aid policies, residence hall and disciplinary guidelines are listed in the Student Handbook, which can be found online at www.mccks.edu.

PRINCIPLES OF CONDUCT

Alcohol, Tobacco and Drugs:

No student may engage in the use of tobacco in any form, alcoholic beverages, narcotics or drugs (unless prescribed by a physician). Any student found engaged in the use of these after enrollment will be subject to dismissal from the college.

Behavior Issues:

No student will engage in any hazing-type behavior, or any activity which endangers the physical well-being of the individual or produces physical or mental discomfort.

Dating/Marriage Relationships:

Each student is expected to conduct himself/herself as a Christian at all times. Public display of affection is not held in good taste. We expect that which Scripture sets before us as the standard for sexual behavior on or off campus.

Dress:

Each student is expected to dress appropriately and modestly at all times, on or off campus.

Immoral Behavior:

No student may engage in "immoral behavior." Immoral behavior includes sexual behavior and illegal behavior consisting of misdemeanors and felonies.
